

A brand new school year is finally here,
Grab your backpack and all your gear.
It's time to learn—there's no need to wait,
We're so proud of you—it's going to be great!

So here's some confetti to help get you ready,
Sprinkle this magic and keep your dreams steady.
Tomorrow at school, you'll learn and you'll grow,
And we'll be cheering you on wherever you go!
